

Group 1

Ethics and our Responsibility to Future Generations with Lars Löfquist

Tuesday,
Sept. 20

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.
How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Debate	Value Exercise	Role Play
--------	----------------	-----------

---

Group 2

The Role of Individuals to Change Structures. Social Entrepreneurship for a Sustainable Future with Cecilia Andrén

Tuesday,
Sept. 27

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.
How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Start-Stop-Continue	Open Space	Your Suggestion
---------------------	------------	-----------------

Group 3

Environmental Change, Migration & Violence/Peace with Ashok Swain

Tuesday,
Oct. 4

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

The envelope	Role Play	Debate
--------------	-----------	--------

---

Group 4

Challenges of the Futures. Progress, Technology & Risks
with Niclas Hällström

Tuesday,
Oct. 11

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Debate	Value Exercise	Six Thinking Hats
--------	----------------	-------------------

---

---

Group 5

Whose Futures? Futures, How do we think about it?

Tuesday,
Oct. 25

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Fishbowl	Role Play	Debate
----------	-----------	--------

Group 6

Democracy & Sustainable Futures. How do we decide about the future? with Hans Peter Hansen

Tuesday,
Nov. 1

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Role Play	Fish Bowl	World Cafe
-----------	-----------	------------

---

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Role Play	Silent Board	Your Suggestion
-----------	--------------	-----------------

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Six Thinking Hats	Quiz	Your Suggestion
-------------------	------	-----------------

ALTERNATIVE SESSIONS

Group 9

Sustainability Winter Festival – 30DC Exhibition

Thursday,
Dec. 15

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

The Sustainability Winter Festival is organized by CEMUS inviting the public and students. There will be different exhibitions, activities and workshops presenting students' work from courses and engaging people with sustainability.

"Start your own" 30 day challenge	Art Performance	Quiz
--------------------------------------	-----------------	------

Group 10

Sustainability Winter Festival – Workshop

Thursday,
Dec. 15

The Sustainability Winter Festival is organized by CEMUS inviting the public and students. There will be different exhibitions, activities and workshops presenting students' work from courses and engaging people with sustainability.

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

World Cafe		Your Suggestion
------------	--	-----------------

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.
How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Treasure Hunt	Quiz	Discussion Activity
---------------	------	---------------------

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.
How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

World Café	Quiz	Your Suggestion
------------	------	-----------------

---

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Open Space	Debate	Your Suggestion
------------	--------	-----------------

Organize a movie night and discussion activity after the movie.

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.

How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

Panel Discussion	Quiz	Silent Board
------------------	------	--------------

---

---

Start by writing individually on sticky-notes, and then discuss in your group:

- What has been the best learning experience you have had?
- Why was it a good learning experience?
- What makes a good discussion?

Below are some suggestions of methods for your group. (These answers you don't have to write on sticky-notes)

- Have you tried any of them?
- Briefly read the SLS instructions and find the short description of the methods at the back.
How do you think these methods could work with the lecture topic?

(Note: you are also welcome to suggest a different method as a group.)

World Cafe	Fishbowl	Your Suggestion
------------	----------	-----------------

•