

Individual Reflection

Reflection on change project and course content

Actors and Strategies for Change - Towards Global Sustainabilities | Spring 2016

The purpose of this task is for you to reflect on your work with the change project, and elaborate in what ways it is connected to the rest of the course. Answer the following questions in your reflection.

Evaluating the project (max 300 words*)

What was it like to participate in the change project process? What did you learn? What was challenging? What would you do differently if you did a similar project in the future?

Connection to the rest of the course (max 450 words*)

Draw on your experience and knowledge from the course in thinking about the following questions. What kind of strategy for change was your group employing? In what way would your project contribute to sustainability? How does it connect to other theories and ideas we have discussed in class? Give examples from lectures or the literature.

The projects of your peers (max 200 words*)

What did you learn from the project presentations of your peers?

Note that the total number of words must be between 500 to 800 words.*
