

Literature

Mandatory literature ASC spring 2019

- Course reader consisting of 3-4 articles per week
- A course book of your choice from the list submitted below

The course literature is an integral part of the course. Each week there will be available contemporary resources online such as articles and videos provided on the Course Webpage connected to the theme of the coming session. To guarantee a clear communication with guest speakers and classmates, it is essential that this material is read/viewed in advance, keeping the guiding questions provided for each week in mind.

By the 1st of February you are asked to submit your choice of course book on studentportalen. You will be reading your book over the duration of the course in literature groups. Available books are the following:

- Crutchfield, L.R. 2018, How Change Happens: Why Some Social Movements Succeed While Others Don't, John Wiley & Sons, Incorporated, Newark.
- Maree Brown, A. 2017, Emergent Strategy: Shaping Change, Changing Worlds, AK Press
- Massey, G. 2016, Ways of social change: making sense of modern times, Second edn, SAGE Publications, Inc, Los Angeles.
- Scharmer, C.O., 2009, Theory U: Learning from the future as it emerges. Berrett-Koehler Publishers.
- Senge, P.M., Smith, B., Kruschwitz, N., Laur, J. & Schley, S. 2008, The necessary revolution: how individuals and organizations are working together to create a sustainable world, Doubleday, New York.
- Stroh, D.P., 2015, Systems thinking for social change: A practical guide to solving complex problems, avoiding unintended consequences, and achieving lasting results. Chelsea Green Publishing.

One copy of each book will be available in the CEMUS Library (to read there, not to take home), it can be borrowed from the Geocentrum library, or can be bought at Studentbokhandeln or online.
